

Summary Worksheet

Story of you as a CMS (“contributing member of society”)

Think back to the story you told. Give it a title or create in your mind a picture or drawing of it. We’re going to want to use this later. Write or draw a reminder of your story here.

Conditions

During the interview, you were asked what you brought to the situation that contributed to it unfolding as did. Now, think about what you said. What did you bring?

Core

What did you identify as the core factor that is at the heart of you – the force that without which you wouldn’t be the kind of person, the kind of contributor you are?

Society: What Kind of World Do You Want?

What single word (or maybe two) describes the kind of world you want?
